

“Beds”

Reading Comprehension – Informational Passages

Directions: Read the passage. Then answer questions about the passage below.

A long time ago, people didn’t sleep in beds. Ten thousand years ago, people probably slept on leaves and animal furs.

Long ago in Egypt, people ate, slept, and talked to friends in bed. Over 3,000 years ago, King Tut of Egypt had a beautiful bed made of wood and gold! But common people in Egypt slept on beds of grass and leaves.

In the 16th century, in the 1500’s, people piled bird feathers or straw on rope webs. Later, people made mattresses by stuffing feathers inside large cotton bags.

Louis XIV, king of France from 1643 until 1715, had 413 beds. He liked to talk to his friends and do his work in bed. He liked beautiful beds.

In 1865, people put springs under their mattresses to make the mattresses flexible. The mattresses moved when the people moved. By the 1930’s, most beds had springs. About 100 years after people put springs in their beds, the modern waterbed was invented.

Today there are different kinds of beds. Some people have waterbeds. Some sleep on mats. Others sleep on foam mattresses or airbeds.
